

Your Future Matters. America's Depends On It.

"... more citizens making more money directed towards a just and sustainable economy builds the best America possible". (page 161)
"If you don't learn how to control money, the people who do know how to control money ... will learn how to control you". (page 177)

Financial success as a business owner enabled me to retire a millionaire at 39. I then focused on my new reality: Personal Finance. It's challenging for me but almost impossible for those with less experience. Here, I share my knowledge with you.

This Book's Four Step Strategy guides you, step-by-step, towards financial success first for yourself, then working with others for national economic equality and social justice. It's written using proven, practical, financial and self-empowerment techniques.

The best part? High school level students can grasp its concepts.

Targets you'll be able to reach can include:

- Turn $3.34 a-day into $637,778.
- Fast track home ownership - for only $8 a-day.
- Master your emotional relationship to money.
- Direct bank and corporate policies using ownership control.

GOAL: Rewrite your STORY ... and unlock your DESTINY!
